They are described as follows: Barry of six argent and azure, on the first nine mullets gules, three, three and three. Crest: A dove standing on an olive branch proper. The family is noted as having originated from the vicinity of Sheffield and settled in Baltimore.

JESSOP OR JESSUP

In "Colonial Families of America" Vol. VII. p. 202, we find that Jessop or Jessup is an Anglicized form of Guiseppe, the Italian equivalent of the ancient Biblical given name Joseph, which has ever been popular among the Christian nations. The Jessops in England are most numerous in Yorkshire, Notts, and Lincolnshire. The American branches are mostly from the Yorkshire families in the vicinity of Sheffield, prominent among which is the Jessop of Broom Hall, which can be traced back to 1550. Five branches of the family sent representatives to America, the pioneers being Thomas Jessop from Leeds, England to North Carolina; William Jessup from Glasgow, Scotland; Edward Jessup from Yorkshire to New Haven, Connecticut; John Jessup, who settled in New Jersey in 1730 and William Jessop.

WILLIAM JESSOP, a native of Manchester or the vicinity of Sheffield, left home before reaching manhood and migrated to Maryland; described himself as a collier; was engaged as manager of the iron works of the Baltimore Company and settled in the vicinity of Baltimore, Maryland. Married Margaret Walker of Dorchester Co., Md. Their son Charles Jessop, was born November 6, 1759 and died April 2, 1829, of whom further.

THEORY

The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, which are based on the principles of wave mechanics. The second part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the experimental results obtained in the study of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the experimental results are in good agreement with the theoretical predictions. The third part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the applications of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the theory has many important applications in the fields of physics, chemistry, and biology.

CHARLES JESSOP, born Nov. 6, 1759, was described as possessing "remarkable personal beauty of the manly type". In Genealogy and Biography of the Leading Families of the City of Baltimore and Baltimore County, Maryland, we find a record which says that Charles Jessop settled at Ridgely's Forge, and served as general manager for General Ridgely for many years, that by trade he was both a wheelwright and a millwright. In early life he was the strongest man in the state, weighing about three hundred pounds, and people would come from all parts of the country to wrestle with him, so widespread was his reputation in that art.

Later he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, became a great church worker and gave the ground on which was erected the house of worship known as Jessop Church. He also contributed liberally to its erection, took a prominent and active part in all public affairs for the good of the community, and in his business ventures met with a well-deserved success, for on starting out in life for himself his capital consisted of only a pair of willing hands, a strong constitution and a determination to succeed.

On April 12, 1786 he was married by Dr. West to Mary Gorsuch, who was born in Baltimore County, Md. about 1767, since she died July 29, 1832 at the age of 65. According to Colonial Families of America, Vol. VII. page 202, he established his residence at this time at Vauxhall, Baltimore County, Md., an estate of approximately five hundred and seventy six acres, and subsequently devoted his energies to agricultural pursuits. However, GEN. & BIO. OF LEAD. FAM. OF THE CITY OF BAL. & BAL. CO., MD. says that "in 1798 he removed to the eighth district and purchased the Vauxhall place".

According to Historic Graves of Maryland and the District of Columbia by Helen W. Ridgely, "Vauxhall" has been in the Jessop family for generations. It is on the county road starting from the York turnpike, near the fourteenth milestone, and running east towards "Sweet Air", about one mile from the York Pike. Here are buried many of the Jessop family and many of the following records <sup>some</sup> are taken from/of the inscriptions.

Charles and Mary Gorsuch Jessop had the following children:

1. David Jessop, born March 21, 1787, died June 17, 1788.
2. David Gorsuch, born Nov. 17, 1788, died March 23, 1812.
3. Charles Jessop, born Dec. 18, 1790, died July 18, 1882.
He married Jemima G. Buck, born about 1794, died April 24, 1833 and had issue:
  1. Jemima Jessop, born about 1824, died June 1858, age 34.
  2. Edward, born about 1843, died July 28, 1884, age 40 years, 2 mo. 29 days. (Two different records call him the son of Charles & Jemima Jessop. However, since Jemima died 1833 and he was born 1843, this is impossible. He is probably the son of Mary G. Buck Jessop, who died May 26, 1865 age 62 yrs. She was the second wife of Charles Jessop, and sister of his first wife.
4. Elizabeth Jessop, born Jan. 28, 1793, died Sept. 20, 1794.

5. Abraham, born Dec. 19, 1796, died Dec. 19, 1800.
6. James, born Jan. 26, 1799, died Jan. 26, 1836. Married Ann M. Pearce on April 16, 1824, mar. by Rev. Orice. She was born April 17, 1796, died July 5, 1832.
7. Dr. Abraham Jessop, born Dec. 1801, died Nov. 17, 1827, age 25. He was mar. on April 18, 1826 by the Rev. Mr. Wells, to Mary B. Little and had son Abraham Jessop, born about 1827, died Dec. 7, 1872, age. 45 yrs.
8. George Jessaop, born July 6, 1803, died April 3, 1887, of whom further.
9. William Jessop, born April 5, 1805, died Jan. 23, 1866, of whom further.
10. Mary Jessop, born about 1806<sup>5</sup>, died Nov. 14, 1854, aged 49 yrs. She married Levi Merryman, Dec. 31, 1822 and had issue:

  2. Clara A. Merryman, b. 1832, d. Aug. 4, 1853, 21 yrs.

My dear Cousin:-

Your kind letter of the 11th inst. received.

The book which I loaned you sometime ago, states, the arms were granted to Richard Jessop, of Broom Hall, July 13th, 1575.

Rev. Lewis Browne, of Havre de Grace, Md., in my opinion, has more information about the family than all the others.

Dr. Charles Jessop and his daughter, of Kittanning, Pa., were here on a visit the latter part of August. They with Rev. Lewis Browne, made a visit to the graveyard at Vauxhall.

I thank you very much for your kind invitation, and trust we may be able to run up for an hour or two before long.

Very respectfully yours,

WM. G. DAUGHERTY.

WILLIAM JESSOP

*****

WILLIAM JESSOP, son of Charles and Mary Gorsuch, was born April 5, 1805, died Jan. 23, 1866 at Vaux Hall, age 61 years. On Nov. 6, 1828 he was married by Rev. John Johns, according to the Baltimore American, Nov. 8, 1828 to Cecelia, only child of Lavallin and Janima Barry. She was born about 1801 and died June 4, 1840, age 39 years. In "Historic Graves of Md. by Helen W. Ridgely" I find a record which reads "To the Memory of the First Born of Wm. & Cecelia Jessop". However, the writer, in checking the tombstones in the Jessop Burying ground found one inscribed as follows:

"Four Infant Children of
Wm. & Cecelia Jessop
Their first born
Annette
Mary Cecelia
George Morrison"

While this inscription reads "Four Infant Children", the above are all the names that appeared on the tombstone.

Their son Charles L. Jessop was born 1834 and died June 7, 1887, at the age of 53 years, of whom further.

WILLIAM JESSOP (1805) married second Mary Johnson, born April 17, 1815, died Jan. 27, 1883 and had issue:

In 1930 Sherwood Church celebrated its one Hundredth Anniversary at which occasion they published a book entitled "One Hundredth Anniversary of Sherwood Church". In this book we find a record which reads "During the past year (1930) Miss Cecelia Jessop, oldest member of Sherwood, celebrated her 86th birthday. She was the daughter of William and Mary Johnson Jessop, owner of Vaux Hall, one of the early centers of real Md. hospitality.

From Sunday morning issue of The Baltimore Sun, June 12, 1938.

"Discovery in unexpected places of an ancient and yellowed Baltimore newspaper is comparatively frequent in this city where the public prints sprouted lavishly during the nineteenth century, but the copy of the Baltimore Clipper, May 25, 1840, which, ninety-eight years later, came into the possession of Howard Wheeden, of Forest Park, Baltimore, Md., was of special interest. It was presented by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Marvin Merryman, of Bradshaw, Md., who found the paper while repairing an old family portrait.

Neatly folded, the paper was inserted between the portrait and a wooden panel which formed the back of the picture. On an inside page was noted the death of Capt. Thomas Wheeden. Mrs. Merryman recognized the name as that of the grandfather of her sister's husband, and last week she presented the grandson with the periodical.

At the time the newspaper was placed in the picture neither the Wheeden nor the Merryman family knew of the other's existence.

Co-incidences in connection with its discovery, however, did not end there, for the paper also contained an announcement of the marriage of George Jessop to a Miss Elizabeth Ashton, of Harford County, whose children now are friends of the family.

The Baltimore Clipper was first issued September 7, 1839; its last was September 30, 1865."
